How to communicate effectively with staff (aka humans)

There are two principles of communication that I suggest business owners adopt.

1. All upsets are caused by unmet expectations.

Think about it, if you have ever been upset yourself, it is most likely because someone didn't do what you expected them to do, resulting in the upset.

It's the same with our staff. We have to make it crystal clear what is expected of them so they have absolutely no doubt about the actions they are paid for.

If a staff member is not doing something we ask, is it because they don't know how (that is on us to train them) or they don't care (still on us because we hired or have not fired them).

Which leads me to my second principle for communicating with staff (and humans in general).

2. True communication is the response you get.

We all know people who consider themselves as great communicators when really all they do is talk too much.

True and effective communication is when what you send out, the instructions to a staff member, is what comes back, what they do.

Next time you are ready to give a staff member a rev, check in on these two points above.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL ALARMS:

FOR PEACE OF MIND AND INDEPENDENCE

About 18 years ago, the Kedron-Wavell RSL Sub Branch sought to assist people in the community with independent living. So they ventured into supplying and installing personal medical alarms. EMA - Emergency Medical Alarms - was formed.

"The medical alarms we operate are all made either here in Australia or in England and we offer a lifetime guarantee on the units," Rod Sellin of the Kedron-Wavell RSL Sub Branch said.

"All the personal medical alarms work on 3G and 4G networks and are totally independent of telephone land lines and NBN. They also have a 40-hour battery backup if you lose power," he said.

"We have partnered with Tunstall Health Care, based in Hamilton, Brisbane which operates in over 30 countries worldwide. Our call centre for Australia and New Zealand is located in Hamilton, and all the staff manning the centre are certified care responders. All installers undergo training on installation and troubleshooting. Our client's find this very reassuring. Currently, there are approximately 950 units in service."

The Kedron-Wavell RSL Sub Branch is a not for profit organisation and all the EMA staff are volunteers, including office admin staff, installers and cleaners.

"We have received a lot of positive feedback from people, many saying the personal medical alarm saved their life." Rod said. "This service allows us to be able to help our veterans with welfare, pension, advocacy, well being along with many other services.

"We support about 70 different Aged Care Home package providers, but the EMA personal medical alarms are available to all people in the community." Rod said.

If you would like further information, organise a practical demonstration for groups or organisations, or would like to volunteer at EMA call 1300732423 or email ema@kwrsl.org.au.

Cameron 'Cam' Spencer

VETERANS REMEMBER LOST FRIENDS

More than 102,000 Australian service men and women have given their lives in wars and conflicts and each year the community gathers to commemorate them on Remembrance Day.

Kedron-Wavell RSL Sub-Branch member, Cameron 'Cam' Spencer served as a captain in the Australian Army Training Team Vietnam (AATTV) in South Vietnam from April 1968 to May 1969.

Cam, 79, said this 11 November, he would be reflecting on the declining numbers of veterans in his unit who were still living, with only about 300 of the original 1000 who served.

"I don't plan to do anything specific on Remembrance Day other than to reflect on the sacrifices made by so many over the years so that we can enjoy living in this wonderful free country," he said.

"I would also like to pay tribute to my unit in Vietnam as it was the first in and last out of the country as well as the most highly decorated."

Cam said the unit association was trying to gain a Unit Citation for Gallantry, a collective group decoration awarded to members of Australian military units for extraordinary gallantry in action.

"It only came about in 1990 and we are asking for a respective award for the unit's service from 1962 to 1972 to match the awards the unit received from the US government and the then Vietnamese government," he said.

Cam grew up in Nundah and lived in Aspley during his military service. On retirement from the army, he moved back to Aspley. He now resides at Woolloowin.

He said his memories of service involved laughter and comradeship.

"One occasion which stands out was Anzac Day 1969 in Danang when most of the unit gathered there from all over Vietnam to remember all Australians who have served," he said.

This year's Remembrance Day commemoration service at Kedron-Wavell begins at 10:15am with members and guests assembling at the cenotaph. The service will commence at 10:30am and will include a guest speaker from the 2nd/14th Light Horse Regiment (Queensland Mounted Infantry) and a flypast of two aircraft.

Defence and ex-defence members will be invited into the Kittyhawk Room for nibbles and drinks following the service.

Geebung Bowls Club

STORY JULIA LEWIS

The history of the Geebung Bowls Club

In 1962, a group of keen bowlers gathered at the local church hall on Innes St, Geebung, to play indoor bowls. While this venue was suitable for hosting their social games, after much discussion, the group decided to pursue a venue of their own.

With the assistance of Alderman Frank Sleeman, the group of 21 founding members submitted an application to the RQBA for the necessary affiliation and were eventually successful in securing land for their very own bowling club.

On June 24, 1964, the inaugural meeting of the Geebung Bowls Club was held in the Geebung-Zillmere RSL hall, and although membership at the time was small, they began planning their new club.

In their first year, the founding members managed to clear the land and after raising £1200.00, they began designing their first bowling green.

Harry Cross was appointed Club President and had organised a loan so that the green could be constructed. At a cost of approximately £4,300, the green was constructed under the supervision of Verge Meyers. As a result, the first green was named the "Verge Meyers Green", in his honour.

It was soon after this that a Ladies club was founded, having their initial meeting in the residence of Mrs Whittaker, Bayview Terrace, Geebung, and Edna Wilson was appointed the first Madame President.

On December 10 1966, members were able to play on their own green for the very first time and although there was no clubhouse, President Harry Cross arranged a marquee under which they could enjoy their morning tea.

The official opening was arranged for August 1967 and it was soon after that the club realised that membership was growing to such an extent, a second green was required. In 1973 after securing neighbouring land, a second green was constructed.

Fast forward 4 decades, the club is going strong and has become the central meeting point for the community hosting not only bowls, but dance classes, markets, bingo, card clubs and live music.

In early 2022, the club decided that while the Verge Meyers Green was an important part in the club's history, it was time to rename the green to honour two club members, Fay and Novar Newton, who had spent countless hours contributing to the club, and volunteering their time.

MORE THAN JUST AN OP SHOP

A local charity is on a mission to enhance the lives of the disadvantaged and those experiencing crisis.

Connected Inc at Virginia is an op shop with a focus on helping people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence.

Warehouse and retail manager Wayne Malmstone said Connected Inc was established during the 2011 floods, providing items to those affected.

"As time went on and all that could be done for the flood victims had been achieved, Connected Inc still had substantial amounts of donated items remaining," Wayne said. "It was then decided to have Connected Inc formally registered as a not-for-profit charity."

The charity later relocated to its existing rented premises on St Vincent's Road.

"It was here we opened our op shop, which we now call 'One of Brisbane's Biggest and Best Op Shops'," Wayne said. "We have over 1100 square metres of floor space."

Items include everything from clothing and bedding to furniture, jewellery, toys and kitchenware.

"We were then being approached by other institutions to assist people in need," he said. "Connected Inc is now firmly established as a key provider of material donations, in particular, furniture, bedding and clothing to welfare organisations and their clients throughout Brisbane."

Wayne Malmstone in the Warehouse

Employees consist of paid personnel and volunteers, but the charity also provides opportunities for work for the dole and community service participants and people with disabilities.

"They are engaged in meaningful tasks that are essential in the day-to-day operation of our charity," Wayne said.

Connected Inc does not receive any financial support from local, state or federal government and is hoping to attract sponsors.

Their primary form of revenue is the proceeds from the sale of goods.

Wayne said sponsors could provide the financial backing that would allow them to provide more services, including free delivery of donated items.

"Currently we have to place a charge on the actual delivery to recipients of these free goods, to cover our running costs," he said. "Quite often, unfortunately, they are not able, or are severely limited in their financial situation to pay this cost."

"Ultimately the less expenses we have, the greater capacity we would have to expand our services. We would love to hear from any organisation, who through good corporate citizenship, may wish to support our charity."

Find Connected Inc at Shed 4A, 143 St Vincent's Road, Virginia. Opening hours are Tuesday to Saturday from 9am-2:45pm.

If you would like to donate items or learn how to become a volunteer, contact Wayne on waynem@connectedinc.org.au

ABBA TRIBUTE ARRIVES IN NUNDAH

ABBA LIVE

STORY PATRICIA HIGGINS

Here to show that all ABBA tribute shows are not the same, ARRIVAL Australia will grace local audiences with what is described as the most authentic production of its kind.

Dancing queens and all people inclined towards vibing to ABBA's favourite songs can book their tickets to the live show scheduled for The Royal in Nundah in November.

According to production creator Lynelle Leighton, the show is aimed at presenting the perfect recreation of ABBA for the audience's sheer delight.

"Most shows have people dancing from the first song, and it is always such a night full of happiness and joy," Ms Leighton said.

Ms Leighton said that the "amazing and crazy journey" had begun after she watched a production that didn't seem to do the original group justice.

"The show just seemed to make fun of them and their accents, and the music in my opinion wasn't true to ABBA. I vowed then and there I would put together a show that would reflect the brilliance of the original group," she said.

ARRIVAL are still Australia's number one ABBA production, a fact which Ms Leighton credits to an international lineup of some of the world's finest musicians and entertainers.

"They immaculately reproduce every magical note, in fabulous harmony, with stunning costumes, unforgettable dance moves, and even the mannerism of the original ABBA performers," she said.

The music of ABBA, according to Ms. Leighton, is manifested in some of the most "perfect pop songs" of our time.

"They sound simple and are catchy, but when you analyse the music you discover how brilliant their songwriting artistry really is," she said.

Setting the production apart, choreography and versions of the songs are based on a combination of original ABBA video clips, as well as their live performances.

You could say it is the crew's way of saying 'thank you for the music' to the original pop maestros in one of the most genuine ways possible.

Purchase tickets (18+ only) by searching for 'ABBA' and selecting the Nundah location at www.oztix.com.au. Find out more information about ARRIVAL Australia on Facebook.

CHERMSIDE WELCOMES BACK A TREASURE TROVE OF ANTIQUES & COLLECTABLES

STORY KELLY WALKER

Good news antiquers - the Albion Antique and Collectables Fair is once again fast approaching and with an impressive range of clocks, china, silver, rare collectibles, jewellery and furniture on offer, the show is a collector's delight and will not disappoint.

Fair organiser, Bill Trindall, explained that the show offers something for everyone - from those wanting to just come and browse through to serious collectors.

"We're very proud to be able to bring this show to Chermshire once again," Bill said. "The quality of the bric-a-brac, jewellery, furniture, etc that will be available will be some of the highest quality that has been seen in Brisbane for quite some time."

Now in its 7th year, the show will highlight a wide variety of vendors from traditional furniture dealers to specialty silver and jewellery brokers, with price points ranging from $20 to $20,000.

"Jewellery lovers will be impressed with the collection of rings and bracelets available - including a very rare deco bracelet," Bill said.

"Those looking for furniture and unusual knick knacks will also be well looked after by the wide range of antique dealers who will be bringing some amazing items to the show this year."

With the opening of the borders earlier this year, Bill is very excited that this year's show will not only feature many favoured local dealers, but will also welcome new interstate exhibitors.

"This year, participating dealers are coming from as far as Adelaide, Melbourne, Sydney, and country New South Wales," he said. "We'll have vendors coming such as Lafite Fine Silver from Melbourne, Weathertop Antiques from Armidale, and Woodshed from Ballarat."

The show runs over three days giving guests a chance to visit for a single day or the option to purchase a discounted three-day pass for those wanting a little extra time to make sure they have ample time to chat to all of the vendors. # Christmas markets bring eats, treats and beats

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

It's time to mix and mingle because Christmas is coming early to the Northside. The Carseldine Christmas Twilight Market will bring festive cheer to town on Saturday, 19 November.

Market manager Karine Smith said the vibrant twilight markets created a hub where vendors could come together with the local community.

"It's the perfect opportunity to find that unique, handmade gift for someone special or simply enjoy the festive buzz with mouth-watering food options and electrifying entertainment," Karine said. "We love watching the community come together and supporting local creators, artisans and foodies."

Market-goers will be able to shop for presents and stocking stuffers at more than 200 stalls, which include award-winning chutneys and sauces from Stone and Lea, jewellery and art by Aleja Hine, hand-sculpted ceramics, indoor plants, locally designed fashions and much more.

A variety of gourmet food will be on offer, from woodfired pizzas and charcoal-grilled meats, to hand-wrapped dumplings and saucy skewers.

There will also be plenty of live entertainment, kid's activities and a chance to snap a Christmas 'elfie' with Santa.

"Come down to Carseldine Christmas Twilight Market and enjoy the wide open spaces and the stars and the twinkling lights as we welcome in the Christmas season," Karine said.

Family photos in time for Christmas!

Brisbane-based photographer and owner of We Just Click Photography, Kate Anderson creates themed set-ups for family portraits and recommends having Christmas photos taken no later than November.

Kate said there was a lot of work to be done after the photos have been taken, including allowing time for the images to be hand-edited.

"You may want to print your photos or you could have them made into your very own Christmas cards," she said. "You may want to send these prints or cards to family and friends that are interstate or overseas and with delivery times fluctuating at this very busy time of year it's best to get in early."

This year, Kate will be holding 15-minute sessions at a Christmas-themed location in Carseldine.

"I find these sessions are popular with families with small kiddies because parents get their family photos and it's all done before the kids get bored," she said.

"It is such a lovely time of year to spend with your family so why not preserve those memories with beautiful, professional family photos every year, creating a wonderful tradition allowing you to look back over the years?"

Sessions are $99, which includes three digital images. For more information and to book go to www.wejustclick.com.au/themed-minis/

GET READY TO HIT THE OPEN ROAD FOR THE HOLIDAYS

STORY KELLY WALKER

Road trip adventures are what memories are made of and packing the right essential travel items will help ensure your journey is both safe and successful. Whether you're a young family embarking on a summer adventure, or empty nesters jumping in the car without a care in the world, keep these must-haves in mind when preparing for your holiday road trip.

Doing a basic pre-travel health check on your vehicle is always recommended before heading out (to check tyre pressure, fluid levels, lights, etc.), but it's also important to bring essential emergency items with you. Booster cables, a flashlight, a basic tool kit, a small shovel, and of course a spare tyre, can really come in handy if you end up in a sticky situation while waiting for help to arrive.

It's also a good idea to have enough food on hand to handle snack attacks between pit stops - but not nearly as important as having enough water. Personal refillable water bottles are a road trip staple, but for longer trips, it's recommended to pack up to 4L of water per person per day in case of emergency - or if travelling to an area where clean drinking water may not be readily available.

As the Australian sun can be extremely unforgiving, sun safety is just as important on the road as it is at home. Hats, sunnies and sunscreen should always top your travel checklist as well as a windscreen cover for your car if it's going to be parked in the sun for extended periods of time.

Whether you're travelling for 2 hours or 2 weeks, hand sanitizer, cleaning wipes, bandaids and tissues are a must to keep germs at bay and your car clean. Spare plastic bags are also vital as they come in handy for cleaning up rubbish, storing wet clothing after a swim or for other unforeseen road trip mishaps.

Finally, whether you use your mobile phone to navigate the road, capture memories, or to communicate with loved ones at home, keeping your phone's battery charged is essential so be sure to remember your charging cable.

With so many incredible places to see both in Queensland and beyond, it's time to pack and hit the road!

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

BART MELLISH MP

Queensland Energy Jobs Plan - With the goal of steering Queensland towards a more renewable future, the Palaszczuk government is excited to introduce the Queensland Energy Jobs Plan. The Plan will provide Queenslanders with a future of cheaper, cleaner and secure energy.

I'm excited to confirm that the Government is investing $62 billion towards a new wave of mining, manufacturing and energy projects – 95% of which will be located in regional Queensland. A key feature of this project includes the world's largest pumped hydro station at Pioneer River in Mackay. This instalment will generate Australia's largest energy SuperGrid, powering our homes and industries across our State.

Equally as exciting, the Plan will produce 100,000 new jobs to Queenslanders by 2040. By 2032, 70% of our energy supply will be renewable and by 2035, we won't require coal to power our homes. This Plan will reduce our power bills and ensure that Queensland's energy assets remain in public hands. In doing so, we are sealing a bright future for our Queensland families.

This Plan constitutes the most significant investment in climate action ever made in Australia's history, so it's crucial for Queenslanders like us, who care about climate change action, to move forward with this Plan.

ANIKA WELLS MP

The Australian Government is inviting organisations to apply for a share in funding from the Family and Communities Program's Strong and Resilient Communities grant program.

The grant's aim is to support equity and opportunity for Australian communities through local community-driven solutions that build self-reliance and empowerment. The grant program is open for new applications until November 3, 2022. I would strongly urge eligible organisations in my electorate of Lilley to apply for funding, which can support one-off projects for up to two years.

The grants will support the social and economic participation of vulnerable and disadvantaged people in their communities via:

the development of young people aged 12 to 18 years who are, or are at risk of, being disengaged, marginalised and having limited engagement with education/training; people with disabilities and/or mental health issues; vulnerable women who experience, or are at risk of, isolation or discrimination; people who are unemployed to address individual barriers to social and economic participation and employment

Visit www.grants.gov.au for more information.

If you have Council issues you would like to discuss with me, please don't hesitate to call my office on 3407 0707 or email marchant.ward@bcc.qld.gov.au at the Downfall Creek Bushland Centre at 815 Rode Road, Chermshire West from 5:30pm. There will be Christmas Carols, a live band and nature walks through the Raven Street Reserve – make sure you bring along walking shoes and a torch.

In the coming months, Council will be planting street trees across Bridgeman Downs and Chermshire West. Council aims to improve the clean, green feel of suburbs across Brisbane by planting street trees, particularly in areas that can benefit most from more footpath shading. However, any resident can request a street tree be planted outside their home. You can request this via Council's website, by calling our 24/7 Contact Centre on 3403 8888 or by contacting my office on 3403 7690 or at McDowall.Ward@bcc.qld.gov.au.

This month we commemorate Worldwide Remembrance Day.

On 11 November 1918, the guns of the Western Front fell silent after four years of continuous warfare. With their armies retreating and close to collapse, German leaders signed an Armistice, bringing to an end the First World War. As a mark of respect to those who have died and suffered, Australians are encouraged to pause at 11 am to observe one minute's silence and remember those who died or suffered for Australia's cause in all wars and armed conflicts.

On 11 November at 11.00am, we will pause to remember all of the men and women of the Australian Defence Force who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

We will remember them. Lest we forget.

If you would like to read more on the Origins of Remembrance Day, please go to <https://www.awm.gov.au/commemoration/remembrance-day/traditions>.

On other local news, I am so excited to see the new playscape and upgrades progressing well at Bradbury Park in Kedron. Recently I had the pleasure of inspecting the current works underway with the Chair of Environment, Parks and Sustainability, Cr Tracy Davis. The upgrades made to this park will make this iconic asset one of the best playscapes on the Northside of Brisbane giving families more to see and do together.

Upgrades include: New Carpark, Toilets, Picnic Areas, and Gigantic Playscape. Keep an eye out for more updates!

TOP 5 SHOWS YOU MAY HAVE MISSED

STORY @WATCHITWOMBAT

Nothing good on your streaming services? Well before you cancel one of your five subscriptions, I've been mining for hidden gems you may have missed.

THE BEAR - DISNEY PLUS When a young gourmet Chef returns home to take over his family's failing sandwich shop, he has to juggle the enormous pressure of the kitchen and the even bigger personalities of his staff. However, not all of these characters are instantly likeable, but they are bloody interesting. As their motivations and personalities evolve with the change of management.

THE TOURIST - STAN Aussie made productions are usually worthy political dramas or coming of age surfer stories. Stan (with the help of the BBC) spins a more novel Australian yarn. The titular Tourist played by Jamie Dornan is deliberately smashed off an outback road, leaving him with amnesia. Luckily, with the help of a plucky trainee cop and friendly locals, he tries to work out who he is and why people are trying to kill him.

GANGS OF LONDON - STAN This is a great tale of crime families vying for power and attempting to fill a vacuum left by an assassinated father. Smart scripting, intelligent plot and some of the most well-choreographed fight scenes I've ever seen on screen. A must watch for any gangster fans out here.

OUT OF RANGE - PRIME VIDEO If you're a fan of Yellowstone or any other modern day cowboy story and wished it had a sci-fi twist then look no further. Josh Brolin can do no wrong and this is no exception, as he takes the reins of a great ensemble cast, fighting for his ranch, while trying to uncover the bizarre mysteries it hides.

THE OLD MAN - DISNEY PLUS Imagine if 24's Jack Bauer had hung up his holster and was in his 70's. That's the premise of 'The Old Man'. Jeff Bridges plays a retired CIA operative whose past has come back to haunt him. He might not be top of your list when you think of an action hero, but at 73, he kicks butt while still bringing the effortlessly cool style he's known for.

HUMBLE DINNER - EAT FOR OTHERS FUNDRAISER

There is a new type of fundraiser being launched by The Mini Farm Project. One that creates meals to feed people in need.

The Mini Farm Project is a charity working to eradicate hunger by creating a network of charity farms to grow food for people in need all year round. The food that they grow is then given freely to local charities around each farm. Last year there were 1.2 million children that went hungry and 1 in 6 Australian adults also went hungry.

"Our job is to grow food on a local level and work with our charity partners to give them free food every week to create nutritious meals," said Nick Steiner, founder. "There is not enough food in the system and charities are struggling with food costs."

One way they are raising awareness of the food crisis and interest in their charity is through their new annual signature fundraiser called In the Spirit of Giving.

"As a charity working to solve hunger we wanted to reinvent the old charity fundraising dinner into something new with a direct tangible result," Nick said.

In the Spirit of Giving will be a two hour no frills humble meal event, creating at least two hot meals for people in need per ticket sold. The food is served by a charity to people in need at the same time the event is running.

"To take In the Spirit of Giving one step further, we are not hosting it in one venue but have 'Ubered' our event to restaurants, cafes, clubs and venues to host on our behalf," Nick said. "I wanted to support the hospitality industry as they have suffered so much in the last couple of years."

There are five venues on board this year from Moreton Bay to Logan. Next year they plan to have more venues creating more meals to feed people in one night and raise awareness of the need in Australia as well as raising awareness of the charity farms that they are developing around South East Queensland.

"This year Aspley Hornets have joined us to host our event," Nick said. "We hope to be able to create up to 200 meals for charity. We are stripping down the event and its costs to create at least two meals per ticket sold."

Danni Francis, General Manager at Aspley Hornets is excited to be part of this unique fundraiser.

"It is important to support our local community and when Nick came along with this idea we jumped on board," she said.

The event will be on Wednesday 30th November from 6pm to 8pm at Aspley Hornets.

Flood maps updated

Brisbane City Council has released new flood mapping for the city, which shows the overland water flows responsible for unexpectedly flooding thousands of homes in February this year, including those here on the northside.

Flood levels were surveyed at more than 550 locations and surveyors also recorded debris markings at more than 90 locations.

A new online flood information tool makes it easier for residents to visually understand how flooding may affect a property for building and development and it also includes a new historic flood layer, showing the extent of the February floods with mapping for river and creek flooding.

PUTT YOUR STUFF AT HOLEY MOLEY

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

A new mini golf course and bar is coming to town and will be setting the par high just in time for the summer 'holeydays'.

Funlab will launch popular putt putt venue Holey Moley at Westfield Chermshire on 18 November.

Funlab CEO Michael Schreiber said Westfield Chermshire was a perfect addition to the Holey Moley portfolio, bringing Australia's best mini golf experience to North Brisbane locals.

"We launched our first ever Holey Moley here in Fortitude Valley in 2016, and Wintergarden in 2019, so we're excited to be expanding our venues in the city where it all started," Michael said.

"We want to continue creating memorable and fun experiences for families and friends and we know Westfield Chermshire is the perfect location to bring the Funlab experience to life."

Two different courses will take putters around 18 imaginatively themed holes – and a few have been personalised for the new venue.

"We love adding unique themes to our venues, so inspired by the weather of Brisbane, iconic moments in time, and arcade game fun, we have designed four holes specifically for Westfield Chermshire's Holey Moley, including the Surfs Ups, Dart Board, Moonshot and the Mini Sonic Loophole," Michael said.

Those who have been to a Holey Moley before will be pleased to see that The Simpsons' inspired 742 Evergreen Terrace, and The Flintstones' Bedrock n Roll form part of the course.

The 350-person venue will include Holey Moley's 80s and 90s themed bar The Caddyshack, featuring signature cocktails like the Sugar Caddy and Rub a Dub Tub. Putters will enjoy feasting upon treats and eats made from ingredients that have been sustainably sourced from local Australian producers.

Westfield Chermshire centre manager Jeremy Cake said the arrival of Holey Moley would provide North Brisbane locals with a unique and immersive entertainment experience.

"We're focused on evolving our offering at Westfield Chermshire so we can continue to deliver an exciting range of social and retail experiences that our customers want and continually ask for," Jeremy said.

"Holey Moley is an exciting new addition to our Entertainment and Leisure Precinct and we're looking forward to welcoming our customers in-centre to celebrate the opening."

Pricing for golf starts at $14 per adult and $10 for kids for 9 holes, with party packages available from $50.

GARDENING WITH SALLY

Organic Gardening in November

WITH SALLY EBERHARDT

With the temperature and humidity rising, now is the time to take care of garden and outdoors maintenance before summer sends us scampering for cool and shade. Over Christmas many of us want to simply enjoy our gardens and relax, giving even more incentive to have a good tidy up now.

Storm season is approaching so secure any garden structures that could blow about, and remove threatening tree branches. Fix sagging gutters or tarps or anything that could form water pools for mosquitoes to breed in. Being attacked by hordes of mosses can ruin a good BBQ.

Ensure your gardens are well-drained and mulched. Keep your plants strong and healthy so they have resistance to the mould, rust, mildew, and insects that increase in the heat.

Some plants like it hot! Plant hardy, heat-loving plants now to make life easier in summer. Two species from the Hibiscus family to consider are okra, a delicious green vegetable, and rosella, a spectacular red Australian native with an edible calyx for making jam and cordial.

What to plant now – Capsicum, eggplant, chillies, sweetcorn, snake beans and heat-tolerant varieties of tomato and lettuce. Sow melon, cucumber and pumpkin into mulched areas for easy-care vegetable production.

Renaming of the Green Celebrations

STORY JULIA LEWIS

Geebung Bowls Club is hosting an afternoon of celebrations to honour two of its life members, Fay and Novar Newton, who will have a green named after them.

Originally known as Verge Meyers Green, it has been an important name in its history. However, the committee felt it was time for a change. The green will now be called The Fay and Novar Newton Green.

Linda Jackson, manager of Geebung Bowls Clubs, said they wanted to honour the couple who for decades, tirelessly dedicated their time.

“We were looking for a way to commemorate the lives of two absolute legends of our club. Fay and Novar were THE Mr and Mrs of Geebung Bowls Club,” Linda said. “When they weren’t bowling, and they were always bowling, they would be volunteering one way or another.”

Fay and Novar Newton, both Life Members, held several board and committee positions. After Fay passed away in 2019, Novar continued selflessly helping the club, including manning the door for the weekly dances, usually in his tuxedo.

The club invites everyone to help celebrate Fay and Novar, with an afternoon of barefoot bowls, a sausage sizzle and music from The Brisbane Ukulele Club.

While Fay and Novar have sadly passed away, Linda said they will absolutely be there in spirit.

Other upgrades included as part of the Bradbury Park improvement project are a new 53-space car park, amenities block and connecting pathways.

THE BUFFET IS BACK THIS CHRISTMAS

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

Kedron-Wavell's famous Christmas Seafood Buffet is back!

This Christmas Day sees the return of the popular family buffet the way it used to be, following a few years' hiatus due to COVID.

General Manager of Kedron-Wavell Ltd, Vjorn Bradow said that after a turbulent couple of years, they were excited to see the Christmas Seafood Buffet lunch return to Kedron-Wavell.

"We make a commitment to sourcing the very best ingredients for our seafood buffet," Vjorn said. "There's an abundance of prawns, oysters, mussels, bugs and that's only the start. There are also traditional Christmas dishes such as roasted turkey and whole baked ham, along with a delicious range of salads and hot sides. There's just so much choice to delight everyone's tastes and preferences."

Kedron-Wavell have put together a grand buffet menu, featuring a choice of sumptuous salads, cold dishes and artisan breads, a carving station, and a hot buffet alongside a huge display of fresh seafood.

Vjorn said the house cured salmon gravlax was a definite standout.

"I also recommend trying the grilled peach, fig and prosciutto salad, and the potato and sweet potato bake is always a popular choice," she said. "You also don't want to miss the assorted sweets station."

The sweet station will have something to delight all taste buds, including Christmas dessert classics like fruit mince pies and Christmas pudding served warm with brandy custard. There will also be vanilla panna cotta, apple crumble, strawberry mousse, and chocolate and caramel slice, as well as everyone's favourite – pavlova with fresh cream and fruit.

The famous Kedron-Wavell chocolate fountain will also be there, with marshmallows, pretzels, strawberries, rockmelon, honeydew melon and wafers ready to be coated in melted chocolate.

The Blue Pacific Showroom will be decked out with all the trimmings and plenty of festivities to delight the whole family.

"There'll be a special appearance from Santa, gifts for under 12s, entertainment and more," Vjorn said.

An optional drinks package is available and includes basic beer, wine and soft drinks.

"Kedron-Wavell's Christmas Seafood Buffet lets the family relax and create special memories, taking away the stress from prepping, cooking and cleaning on what is a special day," Vjorn said.
