FROM THE EDITOR

In the July edition of the Chermshire Guide, we feature the heartwarming story of Pip and her Smart Pup, Tom. Over the next twelve months, Tom will undergo extensive training so he can go home to Pip and provide her with the assistance she needs.

The Chermshire Guide will follow Pip and Tom's journey and bring our readers updates throughout the year on this wonderful story.

We also introduce you to DHEM, a talented local music producer whose music is tearing up Spotify! DHEM joins me this month on GuideCast. To listen to the full interview, scan the QR Code below.

In some great news for the community, Bradbury Park's new playground is now open - just in time for school holidays.

Aspley State High School celebrates 60 years, we have some great Christmas in July ideas for you and Banyo has a new museum for motor enthusiasts! These are but a few of the great local stories you can read about in this month's issue.

For more local news and events plus giveaways, follow us on Facebook.

Until next month, happy reading - and listening!

BRISBANE CITY

"The Queensland Irish Choir is more than a choir. They're a choir family and I'm privileged to be a part of this group," said Morag Wilson, president.

Celtic music, in particular, is part of the language in Scotland and Ireland and extends to areas including Cornwall, Wales, Nova Scotia and more. Musical Director (MD), David O'Keefe, has this year's repertoire ready with favourites from these areas. Some of which you may recognise are; an Irish favourite, 'The Foggy Dew,' a Welsh piece, 'Yma o Hyd' (Still There), and a Scottish, 'Go Lassie Go.' There are many more, of course; all aimed to please.

"We are very fortunate to have a few members who our MD can call on to do solos or duets," said Wilson. These special moments will include sopranos, a bass, tenor and duet by a soprano and alto.

In addition, "We are blessed to be able to incorporate performances by two trios. Both are students from Canterbury College, as well as the University of Qld Chamber Music Academy," said Wilson.

Guest performers Trio Bellissimo will perform at the Chermside concert, while Timli Trio will perform at Camp Hill. Both trios specialise in Chamber Music, so it should be quite a treat. Tim Li is also the accompanist for the Choir.

'A Celtic Winter' is scheduled for two dates and locations. First, Sunday 23 July at the Chermside Kedron Community Church and the second on Sunday 30 July at St Thomas Catholic School. For all details and to purchase tickets, please follow the Queensland Irish Choir website link at www.qldirishchoir.org.au/events/

If you're interested in joining as a choir member, more information can be found on their website too or Facebook @qldirishchoir.

IRISH CHOIR PERFORMS 'A CELTIC WINTER'

STORY PANAYIOTA

Music is an expression of love and for those who engage in singing, they share with us their very heart and soul.

Such is the case with the Queensland Irish Choir. Their musical aspirations — to simply share the Irish and Celtic melodies that have entertained both young and old throughout the ages.

Coming in July, 2023, the Queensland Irish Choir will present its mid-winter concert, 'A Celtic Winter.'

Pip and her new pup, Tom

MEET TOM, A NEW PUP FOR PIP

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

Six-year-old Pip is waiting for the day a very special canine companion will join her family in their Kedron home.

A Smart Pups Assistance Dog is currently training to live with Pip, her mother, Rachel and little brother, Rhys, thanks to the family's fundraising efforts and a sponsorship by Kedron-Wavell.

Rachel said they were given a big surprise at the Craig Harley Smart Pup luncheon in May. "We thought we were there to raise awareness for Smart Pups," Rachel said. "I had no idea until they said, 'we'd like to introduce you to another Smart Pups family – Pip and Rachel'.

The next thing I know, we are up on the stage and someone has given me a microphone and is asking me questions about my family. Then they point to the back of the room and Tom McGuire is carrying a black lab puppy towards us and they are saying he is for Pip."

Pip is autistic and her Smart Pup, named Tom after the McGuire Hotels director, will assist her with sleep, safety, emotional regulation, social interaction and gross motor skills. Rachel started fundraising for a Smart Pup in September 2021, contacting local businesses and sharing Pip's campaign on social media. By December, she had the $20k required to go on the waitlist.

Kedron-Wavell's general manager, Vjorn Bradow said they would support the family by covering the costs of the puppy when it lives with them.

"Having a pet can be very expensive with food and vet bills, so Kedron-Wavell will take that stress off the family and let them focus on the enjoyment of having Tom as a part of their family," Vjorn said.

"Words cannot describe the impact a Smart Pup has on a family, and the club is proud to be able to contribute in a small way to one family in need within the local area." Rachel said it was hard for Pip to imagine life with Tom just yet.

"I talk about him a lot and show her pictures and she remembers and says, 'he is my puppy, I love him'," Rachel said.

"Rhys is excited too but for a different reason. We have permission from Smart Pups to bring a kitten into the house once Tom is fully settled. I've promised him a kitten because, 'I'm a cat person, Mummy'."

The Chermiside Guide will continue to follow Pip and Tom's journey, while Tom undergoes training. Follow the Chermiside Guide on Facebook for updates on this special friendship.

DHEM SLIDES TOWARDS STARDOM WITH NEW SINGLE

A local music producer, DJ and artist is blowing up on Spotify and is ready to take on the world.

With his single Heaven reaching almost 500k streams on the digital music service, DHEM (pronounced Dem) has built a loyal following and is preparing to drop more music this month.

The Stafford resident said his new single, Slide touched on a relationship where one side continued to create distrust and disharmony.

"We've all been in situations similar to the theme of this song," he said. "It will probably be the soundtrack for someone that's going through it right now.

"I wrote the concept, chorus idea and produced the music, and sought out which artist makes sense for the song. I might create two or three versions – an Aussie version, New Zealand version and LA version."

The track has "acoustic guitar with trap elements" and features Sydney rapper, Big Kash, and Malik from Los Angeles.

An entirely self-taught artist, DHEM described his music as "emotion, moody and low-end driven" and said he became a musician because he wanted to contribute to the art form.

"I'm a music nerd, having an ear for sound selection and understanding a bit of music theory," he said.

Last year, he reported 372K streams on Spotify with more than 61K listeners across 118 countries. The music video for Heaven is currently on rotation on MTV Australia. DHEM said he was grateful the track had been so popular.

"I want to up the ante every time," he said. "So Slide is going to be my first song to hit a million (streams) in a short amount of time."

At the moment, DHEM is planning more gigs, expanding his brand and promoting his music. Last month he performed a show in Toowoomba supporting rap artist Lisi. He said his goals for the future included being recognised as a serious musician.

"To inspire others," he added. "To have a financially sustainable career in music. Tour the world from my music. Plus I want to put on for the Northside, the surrounding suburbs of Chermshire.

"My worldview is this – there's two types of people that exist. Participators and spectators – which one are you?"

For the latest updates, follow DHEM on Instagram @dhemonline and Spotify under the artist name DHEM.

45 YEARS OF CARING FOR THE COMMUNITY

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

Co.As.It Community Services is celebrating 45 years of service provision within aged, disability and community care this year.

The charitable organisation originally formed as a community-based committee in 1975 to support Italian migrants who were unable to access mainstream services due to linguistic barriers and cultural differences.

CEO Dina Ranieri said the organisation has now expanded to the wider and general community but still retains expertise in culturally diverse communities, with over 85 percent of staff speaking a second language.

"Through grants, fundraising and program funding from Federal, State and local governments, over the past 45 years it has expanded its staff, social activity centres and services to help over 5000 people per week," Dina said.

Co.As.It also has a centre that teaches the Italian language to more than 27,000 students Queensland-wide, and has organised a number of Italian community festivals.

"The most remarkable achievement is the longevity of the organisation, its client satisfaction and being recognised with industry awards for excellence and high quality delivery of programs," Dina said.

"Most importantly, the rewarding milestones are seeing the impact our support makes to the frail and vulnerable and disabled in our community who, with support from Co.As.It, are able to live their lives with dignity, independence and fulfilment."

New Bradbury Park Playground now open!

After a long wait, local families have been rewarded for their patience with the brand new Bradbury Park playground opening to the public last month.

Members of the community attended the official opening of the playground on Saturday, 24 June and were among the first to try out the gigantic playscape, winding slide and other new features.

Marchant Ward Councillor Fiona Hammond said Bradbury Park was set to be one of the most impressive and exciting playgrounds yet.

"Over the last three years, our community park has transformed into an Australian first playscape for children of all ages," Cr Hammond said.

"The playground design is more than your average slide and swing combination. It encourages adventure play with challenging towers and bridges to navigate, incorporates inspired nature play and is now equipped with all the other amenities that will keep families comfortable and entertained for hours on end.

"Council is thrilled to push the boundaries of play, and deliver amazing play space and parks for families to enjoy for free all year round."

Alongside the playground, the Bradbury Park upgrade also included new barbecues, pathways and picnic shelters which are also wheelchair accessible. There is also a portion of the playscape as well as ground level play that is disability accessible.

WINTER WONDERLAND

CARSELDINE'S TWILIGHT MARKETS

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

Fulfill your European winter dreams this July with a night full of magical seasonal eats, artisan wares, and live entertainment.

Instead of the usual 'Christmas in July' theme, Carseldine Markets are hosting a special Winter Wonderland Twilight Market event on Saturday, the 15th of July at its regular farmers market location.

The Carseldine Markets media team said it will be an outstanding family-friendly night that should not be missed.

"[Patrons can] get lost in a magical world of over 250 artisan vendors and indulge in gourmet winter eats! From piping hot BBQs to crispy churros, there's plenty of delicious food to keep you fuelled for a night of wintertime bliss," the media team said.

What makes this market so unique from any of the other events is the wintertide aspect. Attendees can expect a Swiss-Alps pop-up bar to welcome them with a warm embrace, as you can purchase either your favourite drink or sip on a traditional Glühwein and Schnapps.

"As the sun sets, you have the opportunity to gather around twilight bonfires and bask in its warm glow while enjoying sensational live music across two new stages, with tunes to keep you grooving all night long."

There's no shortage of surprises waiting to be discovered within this beautiful winter wonderland. Be sure to keep an eye out for the myriad of wintery entertainment making its way through the event, including stilt walkers and fire twirlers.

And entertainment isn't the only thing fuelling the fire at this year's wintertide markets. Shopping is still on the agenda, and with more than 250 stallholders, you can be sure to find hidden gems wherever you look, including a variety of handmade wares alongside Carseldine Markets usual vendors.

There will be a $3 entry fee on the night. However, there will be plenty of free parking—just make sure to get in early to grab the best spot.

You can find out more by searching for 'Carseldine Wintertide Wonderland Twilight Markets' on Facebook and RSVP to stay up to date with the latest event details.

MORETON BAY FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL IS

ALL THE FASHION

STORY PATRICIA HIGGINS

The much loved Moreton Bay Food and Wine Festival (MBFW) brings fans and foodies from the local region and far beyond, and this year there's more than ever to savour and sample - including headliner chefs and haute couture fashion.

New and exciting elements include a Lifestyle Stage (boasting an eclectic program of panel discussions, Q&As, and demonstrations), a Comiskey Distillery Gin Workshop pop-up and the Oasis VIP Village (featuring a fashion parade alongside many other perks and drawcards).

CEO of Moreton Bay Region Industry and Tourism (MBRIT), Shane Newcombe, said the MBFW Fashion Parade was in partnership with local superstars Molly and Rose and Orange Sherbet and would happen in conjunction with the Ladies Who Long Lunch Presents Sunday Long Lunch event.

This event is ticketed separately on top of general admission and offers attendees the opportunity to "spend Sunday afternoon amongst friends as you enjoy a 3-course sharing experience, a 4-hour drinks package, Empowerment Panel, and, of course, the MBFW Fashion Parade boasting well-known and local fashion and jewellery designers."

Lisa Jones, owner at Molly and Rose, said she was happy to support Ladies Who Long Lunch, which is an initiative after her own heart, as well as excited about the opportunity to showcase home-grown labels.

"It's never been more important to present Australian brands, with labels like Joey the Label, Cazinc The Label and Studio Zee that are really kicking goals," she said.

Check out the list of VIP inclusions in an Oasis VIP Day Pass (including the chance to win a car) at www.moretonbayfoodandwine.com.au/events/the-oasis-village-presented-by-ray-white-aspley-group and events at The Oasis Pavilion at www.moretonbayfoodandwine.com.au/the-oasis-pavilion-presented-by-robert-oately-wines to the 60s," Michael said.

With classic hits like 'Sherry,' 'Big Girls Don't Cry,' 'Walk Like A Man,' 'Can't Take My Eyes Off You,' 'My Eyes Adored You,' 'Working My Way Back To You,' 'Let's Hang On,' and 'Who Loves You'—the show will have the audience wanting to get up to dance and sing along.

But this isn't the first time Kedron-Wavell has hosted the iconic Jersey boys, as Michael says last year's show was sold out.

"When the show toured in Australia in 2022, 'Oh What a Night' appeared to a sold-out crowd, so it's best to get your tickets as soon as possible."

In fact, 'Oh What a Night' is such a hit across the world, playing hundreds of sold-out theatres, showrooms, and arenas across the globe since its premiere in Las Vegas in 2008.

Not only can locals expect to hear many classic hits performed with prestigious symphony orchestras, but locals can expect a showcase of many top 10 releases that weren't in the Tony Award-winning hit, including Frank Valli's biggest solo in Grease.

"The greatest part about directing a show like 'Oh What a Night' is that the vocals are so true to the original recordings, which creates such an exceptional result, as the show remains fresh and relevant as it is nostalgic," Michael said.

Bookings are essential, and tickets can only be purchased online, starting at $45 for members and $50 for non-members.

OH WHAT A NIGHT! IN CHERMSIDE

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

If a night full of music, good food, and a couple of beverages appeals to you, ChermSIDE has it all.

Musical tribute, 'Oh What a Night,' is coming to Kedron-Wavell for two separate sessions on Sunday, the 27th of August, to showcase the ultimate blockbuster musical revue.

Award-winning Broadway producer and director for 'Oh What a Night,' Michael Chapman, said the event is not to be missed.

"Locals can expect an outstanding musical tribute to Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons. Written by Motown producer George Solomon and choreographed by Paul Holmquist, 'Oh What a Night' will transport the audience back

Janelle Winterflood, Councillor Tracy Davis, Gabrielle O'Shea and Councillor Fiona Hammond at Grange Community Garden

SOCIAL CONNECTION BLOOMS AT GARDEN CLUB

Members of a local gardening club are not just growing plants, they are also sowing the seeds of belonging and friendship.

The Stafford Garden Club are encouraging green thumbs across Marchant Ward and McDowall Ward to reap the rewards from a shared enjoyment of gardening.

Club president Janelle Winterflood said membership of the club provided an opportunity for like-minded community members to share their passion for gardening, which had many self-benefits and community benefits.

"The current management team focuses entirely on individuals not being 'lost in the crowd', and whether a novice or an experienced gardener, or simply to share in an appreciation of gardens, the club welcomes everyone," Janelle said.

Stafford Garden Club was founded in 1965 and currently has 50 active members. Members are encouraged to bring a friend to monthly meetings, and attend outings to local private gardens, open gardens, expos and festivals. Meetings provide access to speakers on a variety of garden-related topics.

While the club is based in McDowall Ward, meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month in Marchant Ward, at the OES Hall in Kedron.

Marchant Ward Councillor Fiona Hammond said she has been involved with the Stafford Garden Club for many years and encourages residents to get involved with local groups to build and form community connections.

"I know that whenever I have the opportunity to attend a Stafford Garden Club morning tea, it is a great time with a wonderful bunch of people," Cr Hammond said.

McDowall Ward Councillor Tracy Davis said the club welcomed people of all ages who shared an interest in gardening and friendship.

"It's always a pleasure to support local community clubs and groups where local residents can develop new friendships and be connected to their community," Cr Davis said.

Janelle said the councillors' support to raise the profile of the club was greatly appreciated.

"Both councillors support the Stafford Garden Club in many ways, such as providing gift baskets at special events, sharing of club information brochures (hard copy leaflets held in both offices), digitally promoting the club across their social pages, and providing branded merchandise as welcome gifts for new members, including composting caddies," she said.

Snip Snip, Clip Clip!

STORY SALLY EBERHARDT

It's cold now but set your sights on preparing your garden for abundant fresh growth in spring.

Snip snip, clip clip! Prune your hedges, roses (except old-fashioned varieties), frangipanis, citrus and summer-flowering shrubs like plumbago and crepe myrtle for compact foliage and healthy blooms later. Leave the spring-flowering climbers and shrubs e.g., azaleas, jasmine and Brunfelsia until after they have bloomed.

Finish those projects you began in June before the Ekka winds of August take the fun out of being outdoors. Speaking of which – check your lawn for bindii and eradicate those carrot-top rosettes BEFORE they turn prickly. Dig them out by hand, or if prolific, try a natural weed killer like Earthfood Maintain or Slasher. Your feet will thank you later.

Cold, wet soils and the long shadows of winter reducing life-giving sun make July less than ideal for planting vegetable seeds. Empty vegetable beds, particularly those earmarked for growing peas and beans in summer, will benefit from application of organic lime to sweeten the soil. Dig lime into top 10 to 15cms of soil where it will leach over time and raise the pH.

If you want to plant something try beetroot, silverbeet, cabbages, peas, lettuce and carrots.

Scam Awareness education sessions for seniors @ The Community Place

The latest Targeting Scams report has revealed that Australians lost more than $3.1 billion to scams in 2022, with older Australians making the most reports, meaning that raising awareness for scams is more important now than ever.

Luckily, Seniors Enquiry Line is hosting its annual Scams Awareness event on Tuesday, the 18th of July.

This free event aims to help seniors become more aware of the dangers of scams to avoid them altogether.

The event is organised in line with the Scams Awareness Project, which is a project that offers free sessions to educate seniors on scam awareness, current scams, and how they can protect themselves.

Some scams are easy to spot, making it simple to delete a text or hang up a phone call. However, other scams are so convincing that you may not be sure, which is where the Seniors Enquiry Line comes in to help seniors work out a plan.

In fact, the 2022 Targeting Scams report found that highly sophisticated impersonation scams were the 5th most lucrative, with one victim losing $300,000 when she believed she was talking to a representative at her bank.

If you are concerned about being scammed, please call Senior Enquiry Line on 1300 135 500.

In the early 1940s, the local community recognized the importance of officially defining and renaming the suburb. Various names were suggested, including Beverley Heights, Avon Hill, Inala, and Wavell Heights. After voting, Wavell Heights emerged as the most popular choice, and it was officially designated as the suburb's name in 1941.

The name "Wavell Heights" was chosen to honour British Field Marshal Archibald Percival Wavell, who served as the Commander-in-Chief of British and Dominion Forces in the Middle East during World War II. Many Australians had the privilege of serving under his command, particularly in significant campaigns in North Africa, Greece, Crete, and Syria. He was a distinguished British military commander who played a crucial role in shaping the course of history during the first half of the 20th century.

Born on May 5, 1883, in Colchester, England, Wavell demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities from an early age, which ultimately led to his rise through the ranks of the British Army.

In June 1915, he distinguished himself by earning a Military Cross during the arduous confrontation against the German Army in Ypres, Flanders, although he tragically lost an eye during that engagement.

Wavell gained recognition both within and outside the army in the interwar period. Renowned for his exceptional training skills and commanding abilities, he became a respected figure among military circles.

Upon retiring from public office in 1947, Wavell was bestowed with the title of Earl.

Today, Wavell Heights stands as a symbol of the enduring legacy of Field Marshal Archibald Percival Wavell. This tribute serves as a testament to Wavell's exceptional leadership and his role in strengthening Australia's defence during a time of great adversity.

WHO WAS ARCHIBALD PERCIVAL WAVELL?

STORY JULIA LEWIS

Originally known as West Nundah, Wavell Heights had a predominantly agricultural landscape, with dairy farming and pineapple cultivation taking centre stage. Its strategic location near the Nundah Railway Station led to the subdivision of a portion of the farmland into smaller residential lots in the 1920s. Further residential development took place during the interwar period, resulting in an increase in the number of houses in the area.

Are interest rates squeezing your business?

With the RBA announcement of yet another interest rate rise, combined with the increased fuel and energy costs and inflationary pressures, many business owners are now beginning to seriously feel the squeeze.

WITH BRAD FLYNN

Here are 3 no cost things you can do to enhance your cash flow.

Keep in regular touch with current and past customers

It can cost up to 6 times as much to get a new customer as to keep someone who has already bought from you.

For your current customers, send them a simple card to say "thank you for doing business with us". The number 1 reason customers leave is they think you don't care about them. If all you have sent them to now is an invoice, this simple thing could keep them doing business with you.

For your past customers, aim to touch base with them at least every 3 months. At this point, your message could be along the lines of checking in to see how things are going for them.

Reduce your expenses by 10%

Even if you watch this pretty closely, challenge yourself to squeeze 10% off it, with this question for expense, "does this expense keep me a customer, or get me a new customer?" If it doesn't then do you really need it?

Margin Magic

Get clear on which of your customers and products or services make you the most money. The majority of your profits will come from the minority of your clients and services, make sure you don't get these mixed up.

Aspley VIEW Club is urging the local community to give generously to The Smith Family's Winter Appeal this year, to support thousands of children and young people with their education.

The education charity is aiming to raise $6.2 million nationally to give over 14,000 children across Australia access to its proven learning and mentoring programs.

It comes as a survey released by the charity found Australians believe the cost-of-living crisis is having a greater impact on education than the COVID-19 pandemic.

CEO of The Smith Family, Doug Taylor, said while inflation is affecting all Australians, the most vulnerable members of our community are faring the worst.

"It's been a particularly challenging time for the students and families we support, with the cost-of-living crisis affecting the price of housing, food and power. Families are having to make impossible decisions about where they spend their limited funds. This could mean paying for school essentials like digital devices or paying for a meal on the table."

VIEW (Voice, Interests and Education of Women) is a national women's organisation and support network, bringing together women to enjoy social activities, develop skills, and make connections – all while supporting Australian children experiencing disadvantage.

As The Smith Family's largest community sponsor of Learning for Life students, VIEW supports the educational outcomes of more than 1,530 children and young people experiencing disadvantage. VIEW volunteers also help students by fundraising at luncheon meetings, and various other functions and events.

ASPLEY STATE HIGH SCHOOL MARKS 60 YEARS

Ewan McFadzen, Principal Jacquita Miller, Holly Thomas

Aspley State High School is celebrating turning 60 this year with a birthday bash for the whole community to enjoy.

Past and current students, staff and community members are invited to attend the school's special anniversary event on Friday, 4 August, with flashback tours and roll calls that promise to be a blast from the past.

Principal Jacquita Miller said the school's signature programs, football and the arts, would feature as a focus of the celebrations.

"The excitement here at Aspley has been rising," Jacquita said. "Our year seven students have been helping in the search for the missing time capsule. We expect by 4 August, Mr Bliss will have completed the archaeological dig and we will have the capsule on display for the flashback tour.

"We are hosting an alumni football match. We know the Aspley High community will be thrilled to hear that the stalwarts of commentating, The Chums (Mr Bliss and Mr Chadwick) will lend their dulcet tones to the commentary of this match."

Live entertainment will be provided by current and alumni bands including Ten12, Simian Sick, The Watchmen, Sons of Hades, Old Mate Special, Melophobia and Murdered by Monday, as well as acoustic music from the senior music students.

"We are proud of our Band and Performance Mentoring Program that is responsible for the depth of talent you will see on 4 August," Jacquita said. "Our newest bands, through to our alumni bands will perform as a thank you to our community for their support and encouragement."

Jacquita said the school had undergone changes since its last milestone birthday, including welcoming year seven into the high school.

"I have always maintained that schools are made up of people, not buildings," she said. "However, I will say we are absolutely delighted to have opened two new, amazing buildings since our 50th birthday. These facilities support our thriving curriculum and specialist programs of football (soccer) and the arts."

The new facilities will form part of the flashback tour, as will the school's original buildings. Those wishing to meet other past students can participate in a 'roll call' event in the new sports hall. Other celebratory activities include mini golf, giant games, an inflatable football field and a photo booth.

For more information about the special event, follow Aspley State High School on Facebook.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

We are now into a new financial year and term 3 of school. I was lucky to attend a range of school events at the end of term 2 including 2 wonderful performances at Wavell High School & Mt Alvernia College of The Little Mermaid and Legally Blonde.

A special call out to Stafford State School for hosting Under 8's day and including kids from our great local kindy's, I was happy to sponsor (and attend) the petting zoo.

I have been out and about in the electorate in between sitting weeks to discuss the Government's Budget and the benefits to Stafford.

This includes the Premier's announcement of a $35 million study into the Gympie Rd Bypass. The proposed tunnel from Beams Rd Carseldine to link with Airport Link in Kedron will link existing road networks and deliver economic benefits and travel time savings across our northside suburbs.

A massive thank you to the thousands of locals who voted for their favourite businesses in the 2023 Aspley Small Business awards.

WITH BART MELLISH MP

It was great to see locals out supporting local businesses and voting flyers on top of benches. This annual initiative gives a platform for small businesses to be seen and to be rewarded for their contributions to the community. With voting closed, with great pleasure I can announce Aspley's Small Business of the Year:

- Beauty, Cosmetic and Hairdressing - Aspley Skin & Beauty
- Café - Milk & Froth
- Early Education Centre - Goodstart Early Learning Aspley
- Health & Fitness - Fitstop Aspley
- Restaurant and Bar - Cold Rock Ice Creamery Aspley
- Retail & Sales - Aspley Day & Night Pharmacy
- Trade & Services - McDowall Veterinary Practice

It was great meeting the businesses as I got to see first-hand how hard they work for our community. All voters were put into a draw for a voucher, with Troy from Geebung being the lucky winner. Congratulations to all winning businesses, and to all finalists, as all small businesses contribute to the fabric of Aspley.

We know that families are feeling the pressure of rising costs of living. That's why the Albanese Government is increasing the Child Care Subsidy from July.

WITH ANIKA WELLS MP

This is a big reform that is good for children, good for families, and good for Australia. It means parents - especially mums - can work more paid hours if they want to. It means more money in the pockets of families. And it means more children can access the benefits of foundational early learning. Under our changes a family on a combined income of $120,000 with one child in care will save around $1,700 in the first year of this plan alone. These changes will deliver more affordable early childhood education and care for around 1.2 million families.

If you already receive the subsidy, you don't need to do anything to get the increased rate. It will apply automatically from 10 July.

If you haven't received it in the past, find out if you're eligible and how much your family can save using the calculator here www.startingblocks.gov.au/child-care-subsidy-calculator

Local residents have been asking me recently about the upgrades to the Sea Scouts building at Gibson Park in Stafford.

WITH CR FIONA HAMMOND

I am pleased to see that Brisbane City Council has started minor rectification works on the building. The two skip bins are onsite, and the temporary fencing has been installed. Please remember this is now a worksite and no entry is permitted.

Externally, the team will cover two holes to block possum entry locations, clean the roof and building, and repair the staircase to make them safe.

Internally, the kitchen will be removed to identify the extent of termite damage and Council will be investigating further into the structural integrity of the building.

The building, which is formally known as the T.S. Paluma Naval Cadet Hut, previously a Sea Cadet Training Depot, is a Heritage listed building with a rich history. It was built to replicate a ship with a mast and gun at the board.

The Gun, which originally was at St. Helena, has now been transferred to Shorncliffe.

A Fun Fact – Do you remember the Old Cannon at Gibson Park?

Cast in 1803, the E. Cannon (serial 63914) was sent to Brisbane in 1862 on the immigrant ship Clifton, with eleven other cannons to defend the colony of Queensland set up in Queens Park (now part of the Botanic Gardens) as a firing battery on the bank of the river. In 1909 it was moved from Queens Park to Cameron Rocks Reserve by Hamilton Town Council. In 1954, it was relocated again and set up at the Bulimba power station on Gibson Island. In 1982 it was swapped with another cannon restored by the Naval Cadets. The cannon was reinstated in the City Botanic Gardens in 2015. It is close to its original location near the Alice Street entry and faces the Brisbane River.

Men's Shed on the cards for the Dickson Community

STORY PANAYIOTA

Australia's first men's sheds appeared c1980s specifically to provide resources for older men towards better health care and their overall wellbeing.

Today, men's sheds do this, plus a whole lot more. They're a valuable place where men, both young and old and from all walks of life, are welcome to socialise and make new friends.

They can participate in activities, learn new skills or even learn from each other. Doug Gaw and Paul Holstein enjoy their longtime involvement with men's sheds and it's through this involvement that they've realised they could do more.

"We know they have an important part to play in our communities, but while numbers are increasing and many are struggling to travel long distances to get to their nearest shed, we decided to start one that would be more central," said Doug, President of the new Dickson Community Men's Shed.

"We got started in 2022 and have a bit more to do to get us up and running but we're really excited by the interest we've already sparked," said Gaw.

Open to men 18 years and older, the Dickson Community Men's Shed is set to open later this year.

Anyone interested in learning more or wanting to help can contact Doug Gaw on 0403 678 905.

Morning Melodies with Rob Rosenlund!

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

Vocalist and keyboardist Rob Rosenlund is returning to Aspley Hornets by popular demand.

A former member of Brisbane band Wickety Wak, Rob will entertain the crowd in the Keno Lounge with Morning Melodies once a month for the remainder of the year, with his next show on Wednesday, 12 July.

Rob said the Hornets was a great club where people could catch up and enjoy lunch while he performed popular songs from past to present.

"As I have quite a good size repertoire, I can change songs each month so that things are a bit different," he said. "I also enjoy telling the occasional joke to give them a laugh.

"I particularly enjoy performing at this club because there are many patrons and members that I have become good friends with, so I get to know particular songs that they like to hear. And when I see them in the crowd, I'll usually play their song for them. I guess it's called 'reading the audience' and doing something to make their day a little happier, which is why I'm there."

Rob has worked as a successful solo entertainer since Wickety Wak disbanded, continuing to make audiences smile with Kermit the Frog's 'Rainbow Connection'.

Those attending Rob's performance can also take advantage of coffee and cake deals in the cafe and lunch specials in the bistro.

To book your spot call Aspley Hornets on 07 3263 5522.

MOTOR ENTHUSIASTS REVVED UP FOR NEW MUSEUM

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

A new motor museum in Banyo will showcase themed automotive collections and the best of motoring history.

The Brisbane Motor Museum opened last month and the first exhibit, The Cars We Grew Up With, displays the kind of vehicles car lovers have been admiring since they were kids.

Brisbane Motor Museum director Jackson Smith said the museum had long been a dream of his grandfather, Colin Galley.

"He has a large collection of classic prestige vehicles and has always wanted to create a place for his as well as other's cars, motorbikes and memorabilia to be showcased," Jackson said.

"So rather than keep dreaming, in the last two years he decided to make it a reality. We have done a lot of work to make the museum a destination. It is designed to be a home for motoring enthusiasts and attraction for tourists."

Some of the must-see vehicles in The Cars We Grew Up With are a 1991 Ferrari F40, 1979 Lamborghini Countach and 1988 HSV Walkinshaw Commodore VL.

Jackson said the exhibit focused on bringing back memories.

"The display cars were chosen if they were at least one of the following," he said. "A poster car for people growing up – something people dreamed of owning or driving, such as a Ferrari or Lamborghini.

"A model of car that people have a connection to because they had one, or their relatives or mates had one growing up, which for a lot of Australians were Holdens or Fords.

"A car that people sold and now regret selling. We all hear from our mates or relatives, 'I shouldn't have sold it,' so we wanted to bring in some cars that people maybe do not own now but still wish they did."

The museum will feature rotating exhibits on all things motoring.

"Some exhibits will focus on the cultural and historical aspects which influenced a vehicle's design and construction," Jackson said. "Some will present the achievements and performance that vehicles made. Other exhibits will present the history of a vehicle and its ownership. And others are just cool."

The museum has a café, gift shop and space for functions and meetings.
