A Note from the Editor

We hope you had a fantastic Easter and if you have kids or grandkids around, are enjoying the school holidays. If you are looking for a fun way to spend some time with the kids, there are some great movies on offer these school holidays and we have a review on page 42 of this month's edition.

Disc Golf is taking Brisbane by storm and this month we interview Wade and Sarah O'Shannessy about Battle at Brigade, the rapid growth in disc golf and promoting women's participation in this hugely popular sport. You can read more on page 28.

On 25 April, we will mark ANZAC Day and remember the sacrifices made that enable us to enjoy the freedom we have today. We have a lovely story this month on page 6 about two locals in the community and their special tribute to ANZAC day. If you would like to attend a service or a march, you can find one near you here: rslqld.org/whats-on/anzac-day

There are loads more great stories plus entertainment, trades and services in this month's Chermshire Guide. And don't forget to scan the QR code below to listen to this month's Guidecast!

Until next month, happy reading – and listening.

LOCAL DISPLAY HONOURS ANZAC VETERANS

Jane and Kevin Ryan of Chermiside West have captured the hearts of the community with a special Anzac tribute in their front yard.

The display, which features memorabilia and photographs, was started by the couple in 2020 during Covid lockdowns.

Jane said Anzac Day held a special significance for her and Kevin.

"We believe that we should never forget our heritage – lest we forget," Jane said.

Kevin had three uncles who served in WW2 and was named after an uncle who never returned.

Jane and her sister commemorated Anzac Day with their father, who served in New Guinea during WW2, since childhood. Their father, who has since passed away, was also involved in the RSL and Legacy for many years.

Photos of Jane's father and Kevin's uncles form part of the couple's meaningful display.

It also includes material panels depicting the different stages of WW1, WW2, Korea, Vietnam, Afghanistan and other peacekeeping exercises, and a wall hanging made by Jane featuring Anzac badges collected by Kevin.

Jane said they added to the display each year.

"Kevin has also picked up over the years shirts that depict Anzac themes," Jane said.

"Kevin made white crosses and stuck the different badges for the different conflicts on them. He also has The Ode, and Flanders Field poem on posters. We also included poppy material to depict Flanders Field.

"We also play the National Anthem, The Ode, Last Post and last year we recorded the poem about Flanders Field. We have also played John Williamson's True Blue."

Jane said they had received wonderful feedback about the display.

"We even had people stop when they drove past," she said. "They also took photos to send to people they know who have served.

"We also send photos to friends who have served so they know we appreciate all they have done for us."

This year, Jane and Kevin are inviting members of the community to join them in their front yard at 7 Marford Street, Chermiside West on Anzac Day for the Dawn Service at 4.20am and the Light up the Dawn ceremony at 6am.

The display is also set up for Remembrance Day in November, as the couple continues to honour and remember those who have served their country.

ROSS WILSON AT ROYAL QUARTERS

Australian music legend Ross Wilson is set to bring his iconic hits to Royal Quarters in Nundah on Thursday, 25 April with his band The Peaceniks, as part of the Now Listen! We're Steppin' Out Tour. Celebrating over 50 years in the industry, Wilson will be performing all the classic Daddy Cool and Mondo Rock favourites, like Eagle Rock, Cool World, State of the Heart, Chemistry and Come Said the Boy. He will also perform hits from his career as a solo performer, including tracks from his latest EP, She's Stuck On Facebook All The Time. With an impressive career that spans six decades, Wilson has had 26 ARIA Top 40 hits as a singer, songwriter, and producer. Known for his energetic live performances, Wilson's show is sure to be a hit with fans old and new. Tickets are $44.90. To book visit avc.live/yztg

OUTDOOR MOVIE NIGHT AT VEND

Enjoy two fantastic films under the stars at the very first Outdoor Movie Night at VEND Virginia on Saturday, 6 April. VEND Retail Manager, Cory O'Brien, said it was an event the whole family could enjoy. "A double feature screening Shrek (because we all grew up loving Shrek) and Sonic the Hedgehog -- both are films that can be enjoyed by all age groups," Cory said. "As well as our marketplace and café remaining open too, because who doesn't love a spot of late-night shopping at Vend?" Bring along your picnic blankets, cushions, and camping chairs for a comfortable viewing experience. Shrek starts at 5pm, followed by Sonic the Hedgehog at 7pm. Tickets can be purchased online or at the door for $5 each, or a family pass for $15, which includes entry for two adults and two children under 12. To book visit www.eventbrite.com.au and search for Outdoor Movie Night at VEND.

Aspley Hornets wine dinner

PETALUMA WINE DINNER AT THE HORNETS

Enjoy a night of wining and dining on Friday, 19 April at Aspley Hornets. Marketing Admin and Reception Supervisor, Maddy Young, said they loved hosting wine dinners at Aspley Hornets because it allowed them to create an event where they could show two of their loves – wine and food.

"The wines on show are some of Petaluma's premium wines, so our chefs are working hard to create the perfect degustation menu that compliments each one," Maddy said. Guests will enjoy a glass of Croser Vintage Sparkling on arrival, followed by four Petaluma Wines paired with four courses of chef-crafted meals! Tickets are limited, so book now to avoid disappointment! Tickets start at $83.50 for members. 6.30pm for a 7pm start. # A NIGHT OF LAUGHTER WITH JOE AVATI

Renowned comedian Joe Avati is set to bring his hilarious new show, When I Was Your Age, to Kedron-Wavell as part of his 2024 World Tour.

Known for speaking candidly about taboo topics without resorting to profanity, Joe's latest show will delve into the generational differences of today's youth compared to his teenage years in the 1980s.

Born and bred in Australia as a second-generation Italian, Joe said the audience could expect his usual "ethnic comedy" delivered in a very different way.

"I am a lot more honest in this show and whilst I still don't swear, I don't hold back in terms of being politically correct and that's what my audience is lapping up these days," he said.

"There is so much new material in the show and as a performer, it's so exciting to exhibit material no one has heard before. It's exciting because the sound of an audience hearing something for the first time repeats over and over."

In When I Was Your Age, Joe offers a side-splitting take on the complexities of modern-day parenting, as well as the minefield of "cancel culture" and the "woke brigade".

"The technological differences are huge and I talk about how kids today can watch any movie any time compared to us who had to wait months to create a VHS Netflix library," he said. "Also, kids today have helicopter parents who hover above them. We had submarine parents no one knew where they were."

Joe frequently performs sold-out shows in Australia, the UK, the USA and Canada where he draws on his upbringing in a traditional Italian family.

"Unlike films where you have to record them, edit them and release them, which takes months, sometimes years, I can write a routine today and deliver it tomorrow and I can immediately get feedback," he said. "You can't get that with any other art form."

Joe has previously wowed crowds at Kedron-Wavell as part of the Il Dago franchise and he said he was looking forward to returning to the venue.

"I like the down-to-earth crowds that the venue attracts who just want to genuinely laugh," he said.

When I Was Your Age is suitable for the whole family.

Tickets $59.90 (excluding booking fee). To book visit www.kedron-wavell.com.au

DEMENTIA CHOIR SPARKS JOY THROUGH FRIENDSHIP AND SONG

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

The Brisbane North Dementia Choir, now known as Bright 'N' Sparks, is a singing program providing a lifeline for people with dementia and their carers.

The choir, an initiative of the Brighton Wellness Hub, offers participants the opportunity to come together for singing and movement before enjoying morning tea.

For Tina O'Sullivan and her husband Chris, who lives with dementia, the choir has been a source of joy and connection.

"It provides a social opportunity where Chris and I can gather with others like ourselves and be supported by those who understand dementia," Tina said.

"It is a fun activity we can share together.

"Singing in the choir is an opportunity to use language which escapes Chris in ordinary conversation. Familiar melodies help him find the words. Sometimes this ability extends into the remainder of the day.

"Chris appreciates being with others as he joins them at morning tea, a social opportunity that is rare for him."

Tina said Chris has an atypical variant of Alzheimer's Dementia that causes functional blindness, meaning he can see but his brain is unable to interpret what he sees.

"Another trait is that he understands most of what is said to him but has few words to communicate," she said. "This can all be very isolating. The opportunity to be supported to enjoy a community activity such as the dementia choir greatly helps improve morale and wellbeing for both of us."

Bright 'N' Sparks currently has about 12 members and is led by music teacher Katie Lawton, who has lived experience of supporting a family member with dementia, and pianist Althea O'Dee. With the help of volunteers like Liz, Norma and Dave, the choir is growing and making a positive impact on the lives of those living with dementia.

The program, which runs in school terms, began in February and will start its next session on Friday, 19 April.

While the main focus of Bright 'N' Sparks is on supporting people with dementia and their carers, the program is also open to others who may benefit from it, such as individuals with acquired brain injuries.

For more information contact the Brighton Wellness Hub on 3631 7568. The Brighton Wellness Hub is located on the corner of 19th Avenue and the Hornibrook Highway, Brighton.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

Sporting clubs in the Lilley electorate will soon be able to apply for a share in the Albanese Government's $200 million Play Our Way program to support new and upgraded facilities and equipment for women and girls.

WITH ANIKA
WELLS MP

Northside not-for-profit and sporting organisations can start preparing their submissions following the release of the Play Our Way Program Grant Guidelines on GrantConnect (help.grants.gov.au).

Applicants will be able to apply for up to $1.5 million for new and upgraded facilities, and up to $1 million for projects that support programs or deliver new or upgraded equipment specifically for women and girls.

Grants will be available in two streams:

- Facilities – for projects that establish and improve sporting facilities that are designed for women and girls and further encourage them to take part in sport and physical activity by better meeting their needs; and
- Participation and equipment – for programs that encourage women and girls to participate and remain involved in sport and physical activity for life, by tackling barriers such as disadvantage or lack of equipment.

Applications will be assessed through an impartial, transparent process, led by the Department of Health and Aged Care.

To find out more, visit anikawells.com.au or call the Lilley electorate office on (07) 3266 8244.

I hope everyone had a brilliant Easter. Whilst many local school kids will be busy enjoying their autumn holidays, I will be busy judging my annual school Easter Egg colouring-in competition! I have received many great entries, so I have got my work cut out to decide the winners. As always, there are Lego and other prizes up for grabs, so kids keep your eyes peeled on my socials as I announce the winners.

WITH BART
MELLISH MP

In other school news, I am proud to announce extra funding for both Aspley and Geebung State Schools. With a total of over $1.2 million between the two schools, these funds will go towards upgrading critical facilities such as upgrading Aspley SS's pick-up and drop-off zones and implementing new safety improvements at Geebung SS to help continue to keep our kids safe. Schools are a cornerstone for many families, community organisations and sporting groups, and that is why I will continue to champion funding for our schools.

Celebrating 30 years of the Gambling Community Benefit Fund (GCBF), Round 121 will provide grants up to $100,000! Recently, nine fantastic Aspley organisations, such as Broken to Brilliant and Geebung Bowls Club, altogether received more than $188,000 to help deliver much-needed projects. Whether your local organisation seeks assistance with applying or checking eligibility, my office is happy to help. This super round closes on 30 April, so good luck to all applicants!

and would frequently leave class with only one shoe.

"I took the stimulus further and thought about the dancing experience for a child with limb difference," she said. "Before I started my research I had quite a misconception about the dance industry."

She was pleasantly surprised to learn through her research that dance schools, teachers and eisteddfods were inclusive of students with disabilities and encouraged all to follow their passion for dance.

"Once I had the idea of a book about a dancer with limb difference, I thought about the additional challenges she may face physically and socially," she said. "I wanted the two girls to develop a friendship and to dance together."

Eileen worked with a dance instructor who put together the dance that actually appears in Aisling and Amelia.

To bring the book to life for her audience, Eileen worked closely with her illustrator Chloe Finn who took inspiration from images of Eileen's daughter in different dance positions.

Eileen's new novel combines her love for entertainment for children with the importance of providing children with important messages.

"If you can slip a message into a children's book in a non-didactic way, then that's looked upon very favourably by editors and adult buyers," she said. "But I also think it's fine for children's books to be entertaining for entertainment's sake."

"It was also important to me to write the book from Aisling's point of view and for Amelia to show her vulnerability."

Join Eileen for the Aisling and Amelia book launch on Saturday, 27 April at 10.30am at Quick Brown Fox Bookshop, 5/33 Carberry St, Grange. Come dressed up in your favourite dance outfit.

CYBER GURU CHRIS JEFFERY

STORY KELLY WALKER

Zillmere local, Chris Jeffery has been providing IT solutions for over 26 years and has recently been presented with the 2023 CompTIA ANZ Future Leader Spotlight Award for his success and innovation in advancing the technology industry.

"I started in the industry when I was very young, before Facebook and Google," Chris said.

"I love seeing how the industry is constantly evolving and seeing how technology can transform businesses to help them thrive. It was a great honour to receive the award and be recognised as an advocate for the IT industry and ambassador for our clients."

This Future Leader award is reserved for young professionals who have shown success or originality as an entrepreneur, or who have made an impact in another demonstrable way, and Chris definitely fits the bill.

With nearly three decades of IT experience, Chris has been passionate about helping others navigate the ever-changing IT industry ever since his family bought their first computer when Chris was 11 years old. It didn't take long for him to figure out how to fix them and teach his family and friends how to use them. At 13, Chris was contracted by a local state school to look after their computer lab and started his own business at just 14 years old.

Now residing in Zillmere with his family, Chris and his wife, Jessie, work as a team while raising their two children. Together, they enjoy being able to help others see how much IT can improve productivity.

"It's so satisfying being able to help our not-for-profit clients in particular so that they can better support their community," Chris said. "I really enjoy training our clients and seeing them have that 'light bulb' moment."

"I started in the industry when there was only dial-up internet and now nearly every mobile phone is a computer with high speed internet. There have been so many changes – such as cloud computing, cybersecurity and, more recently, artificial intelligence. For me personally, what has kept me engaged with the industry for so long is that there are always new things to learn. Looking back, it is incredible to consider how much technology has changed over time and it's exciting to be at the forefront of it all."

EXPLORING ST. LUKE'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A Journey Through Time & Architecture

St Luke's Wavell Heights Presbyterian Church today

HISTORY CHERMSIDE

The rich history and evolving architecture of St Luke's Wavell Heights Presbyterian Church is a testament to the dynamic spirit of its congregation and the ever-changing landscape of Brisbane. Initially opting for a timber church hall facing Spence Road over a modernist brick structure, the congregation's journey unfolded with key milestones.

Beginning with the stump-capping ceremony on 5 May 1951 and the subsequent delays leading to the inaugural service on 11 May 1952, the church hall was officially opened and dedicated on 31 August 1952. The popularity of the Sunday School prompted further expansion, leading to the construction of a dedicated Kindergarten Hall on 18 March 1956. By 1957, the Sunday School flourished with 341 children, 31 teaching staff and around 200 affiliated families.

In October 1959, St Luke's Wavell Heights Presbyterian Church achieved autonomy as a fully sanctioned charge, complete with its minister. The church complex expanded with the addition of a manse, designed by local architect Ray Smith, who played a pivotal role as the 'Advising Architect' since March 1957.

The 1960s ushered in a new chapter with plans for a brick church, though not without hurdles. Design and budget issues, along with changes in architects, led to delays and revisions. The visionary architect Ray Smith, in October 1961, presented sketch plans for a multi-purpose building, only to abandon the idea by September 1962. Smith's subsequent design for a one-storey brick church, submitted in November 1962, faced budgetary challenges, resulting in a new design by the firm of Cross and Bain, appointed on 4 November 1964.

Completed in the 1960s, the new church reflects a departure from traditional church architecture in Queensland. With a pentagonal plan, folded roof, and inclusive worship space, the design aligns with evolving suburban trends, resembling residences in materials and scale. Notable features include carefully arranged pews, a central spire over the baptismal font, and a harmonious balance of light. The red cedar furniture, custom designed by James William Gibson and crafted in Northgate by Maunsell's, stands as a testament to the meticulous attention paid to every detail.

LADIES JOIN BATTLE AT BRIGADE

Local disc golf tournament The Battle at Brigade is back for its second year, this time joining the Professional Disc Golf Association (PDGA) Women's Global Event to celebrate and promote women in sport.

Tournament directors Wade and Sarah O'Shannessy have announced that the event will take place at 7th Brigade Park in Chermside on Saturday, 18 May, hosted by the Brisbane Disc Golf Club Inc.

Sarah, a female masters player, said the event had been sanctioned by both PDGA and Australian Disc Golf (ADG), ensuring the highest standards of course design, safety, and financial transparency.

"In this tournament, we will have up to three different grass tee locations on each hole, allowing for an easier layout for beginners right through to a long, very technical course for advanced and professional players," Sarah said.

Disc golf is similar to traditional golf, but instead of hitting a ball, players throw a flying disc into a basket along a fairway.

Sarah said it was a fun, accessible outdoor activity that could be enjoyed by people of all ages and abilities.

"The sport can be played casually with family and friends right up to a professional level at organised local and international tournaments and professional tours," she said.

She said the PDGA Women's Global Event (WGE) was an international event where results from every female division from any registered tournament on the weekend of May 18 and 19 are compared worldwide.

"In Australia, the first-ever WGE in 2012 attracted just three female players, compared to 2022 with 100 female players, so the growth is happening, but we want to help boost that growth," she said.

"Although the sport of disc golf has been growing at a rapid rate, female participation rates continue to lag behind as they have done in many other sports throughout Australia. Approximately 14% of all Australian disc golf players that played in tournaments last year were female. While this number is growing, there's plenty of room for improvement.

"Promoting women's participation in sport not only improves general health and well-being of young girls, it also provides a better reflection of the Australian society as a whole and creates a fairer, more inclusive environment."

This year, Kedron-Wavell has agreed to sponsor the entry fee for female and junior players taking part in the tournament.

"Kedron-Wavell supports a number of local female sporting organisations and we are very happy that the management team are also willing to support the growth of both female and junior players in our niche sport," Sarah said.

She added that without the support of volunteers and sponsors like Kedron-Wavell and Disc Connection, the tournament would not be possible.

All tournament participants must be registered with ADG (www.australiandiscgolf.com/join/). Registration is free. The park will remain open to the public during the tournament and spectators are invited to check out the action.

PEDAL FOR A CAUSE AT TOUR DE BRISBANE

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

Thousands of cyclists are preparing to pedal through Brisbane this month for the fifth annual Tour de Brisbane.

Sponsored by Transurban, the charity ride aims to raise funds for transplant research supported by The Common Good, an initiative of The Prince Charles Hospital Foundation.

Race director Mike Crawley said Brisbane was fast becoming well-known as Australia's cycling capital. "With considerable investment in cycling infrastructure and a dedicated local cycling cohort, it is exciting to see this event complement the future growth of the sport in Queensland," Mr Crawley said.

The Tour de Brisbane will take participants through landmarks such as the Story Bridge, Inner CBD, Centenary Motorway, Kingsford Smith Drive and Mount Coot-Tha. Riders can choose between a 50-kilometre short ride, an 80-kilometre medium ride or a 100-kilometre long ride. For the first time this year, the Tour de Brisbane will include the Big Family Ride, a free 10-kilometre bike ride for families with children aged 8 and over. The ride will start and finish at the Brisbane Showgrounds via the Story Bridge, Customs House and the Northern Busways. Every participant will receive a finisher's medal.

This year, there will also be a sprint duathlon taking place, which involves a 1.5-kilometre run, 26-kilometre ride and 5-kilometre run. The event is not only about cycling but also about giving back to the community. Before the Tour de Brisbane, the Cycle of Giving charity event was held to raise awareness about organ and tissue donation and raise funds for transplant research at The Prince Charles Hospital.

Since 2019, the Tour de Brisbane has continued that legacy. This year, the ride is seeking to raise $70,000 to support close to 1500 hours of life-saving medical research and help people for whom transplant is their only option.

"We are very proud to raise valuable funds for this important local cause to assist with medical research that has an impact around the world," Mr Crawley said. "We urge and encourage our riders to support this worthy by either fundraising as part of their entry or can donate via www.thecommongood.org.au."

Participants can register to ride online and share their fundraising page on social media, via email and with family and friends to support The Common Good.

PLANNED LIGHTING UPGRADE AT GIBSON PARK

Brisbane City Council is planning to deliver upgraded lights at suburban sporting clubs, including Gibson Park in Stafford, home to Stafford District Cricket Club, Padua College and Brothers Junior Rugby League Club. The upgrade is part of Council's Better Sports Lighting Program, which will remove outdated halogen lights and replace them with energy-efficient and higher-quality LED light fittings. Council says that replacing the lights could save each community sports club up to $4000 a year in power bills. The program is set to be rolled out over the next four years.

ORGANIC GARDENING IN APRIL

STORY SALLY EBERHARDT

Companion plants - useful herbs and flowers for a super healthy garden.

Achieve your goal of an abundant, healthy garden without the use of chemical fertilisers or toxic insecticides through companion planting.

These herbs and flowers make great companion plants for various reasons –

- Pyrethrum repels bugs.
- Basil helps repel flies and mosquitoes.
- Garlic keeps aphids away from roses.
- Mint repels cabbage white moth.
- Rue (Rutus, not Peganum) keeps cats and dogs off garden beds if planted round the borders.
- Nasturtium attracts pollinators. The flowers repel aphids.
- Chamomile gives strength to its neighbour plants, deters flies and mosquitoes.
- Elderberry is a general insecticide, also the leaves encourage compost fermentation. Make a lovely wine with the flowers and berries!
- Fennel (not F. vulgare or F. officinale) repels flies, fleas and ants.
- French Marigold root secretions kill nematodes in the soil. Will repel white fly amongst tomatoes.
- Sage protects cabbages from cabbage white moths.
- Tansy (Tanacetum, not Senecio) repels moths, flies and ants.

Autumn plantings include lots of leafy greens (mizuna, lettuce, cabbage, spinach, rocket etc), potatoes, carrots, beetroot, broccoli, cauliflower, tomatoes, chilli, and garlic.

Protect your precious seedlings with some of the suggested herbs and flowers so you get fed more than the bugs.

BEETROOT RELISH

"This was my mother's recipe as she grew her own beetroot. She also made her own sliced beetroot for salads and hamburgers. She usually made double or triple relish as jars were given to friends and relatives for presents. I hope you enjoy this recipe."

This month's recipe is shared thanks to member Judith Peake.

INGREDIENTS

- 650grms Beetroot
- 1 Brown Onion finely chopped
- 1 Granny Smith apple, peeled, cored and finely chopped
- 1 cup of lightly packed Brown Sugar
- 1 cup of White Wine Vinegar
- 3 whole Star Anise
- ¼ of a teaspoon of Ground Cloves

METHOD

Wash beetroot and trim stems if necessary. Place the beetroot in a large saucepan and cover with cold water.

On medium heat, cook for 20 minutes or until tender. Drain and rinse under cold running water.

Wearing rubber gloves, peel the beetroot and coarsely grate.

Meanwhile combine onion, apple, sugar, star anise and cloves in a saucepan. Bring to the boil over a high heat, stirring to dissolve the sugar.

Reduce to medium heat and simmer until the apple is tender.

Add beetroot to apple mixture and simmer on medium to low heat for 45 minutes or until the mixture is syrupy.

Remove and discard the star anise.

Carefully spoon into hot sterilised jars and seal.

STERILISING JARS

To sterilise jars, preheat the oven to 100C/80C fan-forced. Wash jars and lids in hot, soapy water. Place in a large saucepan. Cover with water. Bring to the boil over high heat. Boil for 10 minutes. Remove from the heat. Using tongs, carefully transfer jars and lids to a tea towel-lined baking tray. Place in the oven until required.

EMPOWER HER LAUNCHED

The Launch of the EmpowHer Program at Womenspace's monthly Women Weaving Stories event was a great conclusion to International Women's Day celebrations last month.

More than 30 women (a full house) gathered to share food and stories and find out how to be involved in this exciting program, supported by a grant from the Office for Women.

The project brings together seven local women – yoga teachers, a GP, a social worker, creative arts practitioners and community development practitioners – to collaborate, inspire and complement each other.

To co-facilitate workshops and information sessions for women of various ages (16+) and backgrounds, and develop experiences and resources to strengthen skills to decrease stress, and build confidence, connection, and belonging in our community.

This intergenerational initiative will take the form of two rounds of four half-day sessions at WOMENSPACE on Saturday mornings between 9am and 12.30pm starting on Saturday, 27 April.

The attendees of the launch on 8 March presented ideas and stories about women from past, future, and present generations. Not all who were ready to share got the opportunity to do so – we were running out of time! Therefore, we agreed to follow on from where we stopped at the next Women Weaving Stories on Friday, 12 April, by which time we will have more detailed information about the program as well.

If you have questions and ideas you would like to add while we are building this program, leave a note in the Q&A cauldron at Womenspace during our Cuppa&Chat on Wednesdays from 10am to 11.30am, or Create&Chat on Fridays from 1pm to 3pm, or bring them to the Women Weaving Stories on Friday, 12 April at 6pm for a 6.30pm start.

Are you coming on 12 April? RSVP by SMS to 0434 357 862 or email chair@womenspace.org.au

Are you interested in the EmpowHer Program?

Register your interest, so we can keep you informed as the project develops. ## MOVIE REVIEW

KUNG FU PANDA 4

Po is back, and after achieving the title of Spiritual Leader of the Valley of Peace he must find someone worthy to take his place as Dragon Warrior. Although this won't be easy as a wicked sorceress threatens to bring back Po's foes. It was great to see/hear the incredible voice cast return for another round of action and Jack Black never disappoints.

GODZILLA X KONG: THE NEW EMPIRE

Godzilla seems to be the flavour of the month with a speight of movies and a TV series all keen to tell the story of the scaly beast. The old rivals must join forces to help take on an ancient monster lurking deep in the earth. Again I'd watch the trailer with your kids and check the rating to see if it's appropriate for them. My teenagers had a blast watching it.

RICHARD THE STORK & THE MYSTERY OF THE GREAT JEWEL - PG

In this sequel to the 2017 Richard the Stork, this time Richard decides to run away from his flock and find his own adventure. Helping to rescue trapped sparrows from a greedy peacock. The animation may not be Disney level, your little ones should still enjoy the sense of adventure.

THE TIGER'S APPRENTICE - PG

Tom Lee, a Chinese American boy discovers that he's from a long line of magical protectors known as the Guardians. As the title suggests, he'll have to train with a Tiger and work with the other Zodiac animals to protect his family's secret. Featuring the vocal talents of Michelle Yeoh, Henry Golding and Lucy Liu.

STORY @WOTCHITWOMBAT

School Holidays are upon us! Don't panic, we've found the Top 5 Movies to help keep your kids entertained over the break.

GHOSTBUSTERS: FROZEN EMPIRE

The Ghostbusters must save New York (and the rest of the world) when an ancient artifact releases a seemingly unstoppable evil force. I grew up loving these movies, ghosts, monsters and great one liners and this sequel stays true to the original films. It may be too spooky for younger kids so I'd check the rating and maybe watch the trailer with them first.

THE FIRST OMEN

THE FIRST OMEN

In 'The First Omen,' a prequel to the iconic horror film series, a young American woman ventures to Rome, ready to dedicate her life to the church. However, what begins as a noble path quickly spirals into a harrowing confrontation with darkness, shaking the very foundation of her faith.

Main Cast: Bill Nighy, Ralph Ineson, Sônia Braga, Nell Tiger Free, Tawfeek Barhom

BACK TO BLACK

BACK TO BLACK will focus on Amy's extraordinary genius, creativity and honesty that infused everything she did. A journey that took her from the craziness and colour of 90's Camden High Street to global adoration - and back again. BACK TO BLACK crashes through the looking glass of celebrity to watch this journey from behind the mirror, to see what Amy saw, to feel what she felt.

Main Cast: Eddie Marsan, Jack O'Connell, Lesley Manville

Genre: Biography

Release Date: 11 April 2024

Rating: CTC

THE FALL GUY

He's a seasoned stunt performer, facing the adrenaline of explosive action, thrilling falls, and daring crashes alongside his stunt community all for our entertainment. Fresh from a near-career-ending incident, this working-class hero must now embark on a mission to locate a vanished movie star, untangle a web of conspiracy, and reclaim lost love, all while juggling his day job.

FISH OF THE MONTH

COMMON TOADFISH - TETRACENOS HAMILTONI

A few species of Pufferfish inhabit Moreton Bay. The most prolific is the common Toadfish where almost any trip down to the local waterfront or jetties will see you find them quite easily feeding on the water's edge.

They can blow themselves up like a balloon when threatened to appear larger and they often bury themselves in the sand with only their eyes exposed.

Growing to about 15cm they are usually caught when fishing for smallmouth fish like whiting and baitfish and when in large schools can be a real issue taking bait meant for other species.

This fish is very poisonous and cannot be eaten and although it can be handled quite safely, with four large teeth fused together like rabbits the larger fish can also leave a nasty bite.
